

We have enjoyed the freedom from unwanted phone calls which the Indiana Attorney General has provided through the no-call legislation. If we want something, we make the call. Please do not weaken this law in any manner. We have the right to our uninterrupted privacy.